Celebrating 150 Years!

Free - InThrive Film Festival (R; 2 hours, 16 minutes)

Dedicated to elevating the voices and talents of incarceration survivors, this special evening of short films, presented by InThrive, showcases authentic stories of resilience, transformation, and life after prison through the lenses of justice-impacted filmmakers, actors, and artists, celebrating what it truly means to thrive. Free screening Fri May 1 at 7 PM.

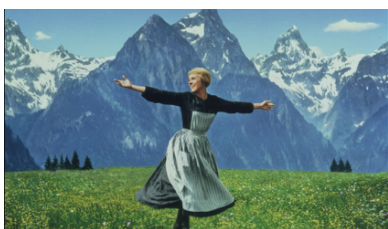

Met Live in HD: Eugene Onegin (Tchaikovsky; approx. 4 hours, 5 minutes – 2 Intermissions) with Pre-Opera Talk by Dr. Morton Achter

Soprano Asmik Grigorian returns to the Met as Tatiana, the lovestruck young heroine in this ardent operatic adaptation of Pushkin, transmitted live from the Metropolitan Opera stage. Baritone Igor Golovatenko reprises his portrayal of the urbane Onegin, who realizes his affection for her all too late. Sat May 2 at 1 PM. Pre-Opera talk at 11:45 AM. Tickets: $25 Adult, $23 LT Member, and $5 Youth.

Knife: The Attempted Murder of Salman Rushdie (NR; 1 hour, 47 minutes)

30 years after Iran issued a religious decree calling for Salman Rushdie's death over The Satanic Verses, he traveled to Chautauqua to speak about the U.S. as a sanctuary for exiled writers and artists. There, a man rushed the stage to kill him with a knife. Alex Gibney's documentary is a testament to freedom of expression and a defiant response to the attempt on Rushdie's life. Playing Sat May 2 at 7 PM. Followed by a talkback with special guest, Academy Award Winning filmmaker, Alex Gibney. Tickets: $15 Adult, $13 LT Member, and $5 Youth.

Free – The Sound of Music (1965; G; 2 hours, 54 minutes)

Tuneful, heartwarming, and based on the real-life story of the Von Trapp Family singers, one of the best-known concert groups immediately preceding World War II. Julie Andrews plays the role of Maria, the tomboyish postulant at an Austrian abbey who becomes a governess in the home of a widowed naval captain with seven children and brings a new love of life and music into the home. Free event, Sun May 3 at 1 PM. Generously Sponsored by Bath Savings Bank.

Lincoln County Community Theater presents: Little Shop of Horrors

Live on stage! The meek floral assistant Seymour Krelborn stumbles across a new breed of plant he names "Audrey II" after his coworker crush. This foul-mouthed, carnivore promises unending fame and fortune to Krelborn as long as he keeps feeding it. Over time, Seymour discovers Audrey II's out of this world origins and intent towards global domination! Performances Fri May 15 at 7:30 PM, Sat May 16 at 2 PM and 7:30 PM, and Sun May 17 at 2 PM. Tickets: $30 Adult, $25 LT Member, and $10 Youth.

Unless otherwise noted, admission is general seating and concessions are available. Wednesday matinee screenings are played with Open Captions (OC) when available. Celebrating 150 Years!

Y Arts presents: Dot & the Kangaroo Jr. (1 hour)

Live on stage. Young, rambunctious Dot longs for an adventure exploring everything the country has to offer. When she finds herself lost and afraid in the darkening Australian bush, Dot befriends a wise mother Kangaroo who enlists the help of Australia's favourite bush creatures to help Dot find her way back home. Performances Thu May 21 at 5 PM and Fri May 22 at 5 PM. Tickets: $10 general admission.

Free - Georgia O'Keeffe: The Brightness of Light (encore; 1 hour, 58 minutes)

A documentary exploring the life and art of the most important American woman artist of the 20th century. O'Keeffe, famously isolated in the New Mexico desert, emerged as an iconic role model for second wave feminists. From Academy Award-winning director Paul Wagner, the film features music by Emilie Levienaise-Farrouch, narration by Hugh Dancy, and Claire Danes. Free screening Thu May 21 at 7:15 PM* (*note start time).

The Drama (R; 1 hour, 46 minutes)

A happily engaged couple is put to the test when an unexpected turn sends their wedding week off the rails. Featuring career-highlight performances by Pattinson and Zendaya. While marketed as a dark romantic comedy, this film contains mature themes and violent content that may be distressing to some viewers. Playing Fri May 22 at 1 PM* and 7:15 PM*, Sat May 23 at 2 PM and 7 PM, Wed May 27 at 1 PM* and 7 PM, and Thu May 28 at 2 PM (*note start time). Presented in partnership with Legacy Properties Sotheby's International Realty.

2026 Fish Ladder Fundraiser: Adam Ezra Group

Miss Emily, whose voice has got to be heard to be believed - raw, expressive, transitioning flawlessly from a plaintive cry to a sonorous growl, opens for Adam Ezra Group, known for their unique blend of underground Americana and folk, creating powerful music that resonates deeply with audiences far and wide. Sun May 24. Doors open to the public at 3:30 PM. Tickets: $60 General Admission.

Exhibition on Screen - Frida Kahlo (encore; NR; 1 hour, 30 minutes)

Frida Kahlo is a phenomenon. She is arguably the world's favorite female artist, beloved by young and old. Exhibition on Screen's award-winning film, first released during covid to a restricted audience, is back by popular demand with an exciting new addition from the blockbuster transatlantic exhibition from Tate Britain and MFA Houston 'Frida Kahlo: the Making of an Icon. Playing Thu May 28 at 7 PM and Fri May 29 at 2 PM. Tickets: $15 Adult, $13 LT Member, and $5 Youth.

Unless otherwise noted, admission is general seating and concessions are available. Wednesday matinee screenings are played with Open Captions (OC) when available. Celebrating 150 Years!

The Christophers (R; 1 hour, 40 minutes)

The children of a once famous artist hire a forger to complete some unfinished, long ago abandoned canvases so they'll have an inheritance when he dies. A sly caper carried off with director Steven Soderbergh's characteristic panache, The Christophers is a superb two-hander featuring Ian McKellen and Michaela Coel at their very best. Playing Fri May 29 at 7 PM, Sat May 30 at 7 PM, Sun May 31 at 2 PM, Wed Jun 3 at 2 PM and 7 PM, and Thu Jun 4 at 2 PM. Presented in partnership with Wanderwood.

Met Live in HD: El Último Sueño de Frida y Diego (approx. 2 hours, 48 minutes – 1 intermission)

American composer Gabriela Lena Frank's first opera, a magical-realist portrait of Mexico's painterly power couple Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera, with libretto by Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright Nilo Cruz. Fashioned as a reversal of the Orpheus and Euridice myth, the story depicts Frida, sung by leading mezzo-soprano Isabel Leonard, leaving the underworld on the Day of the Dead and reuniting with Diego, portrayed by baritone Carlos Álvarez. Sat May 30 at 1 PM. Tickets: $25 Adult, $23 LT Member, and $5 Youth.
